We are very proud that Vanuatu has signed the Convention on the Establishment of the International Organization for Mediation (IOMed), becoming one of the founding members alongside 32 other countries.

With its headquarters in Hong Kong, the IOMed is dedicated to promoting mediation to settle international disputes through dialogue and mutual respect and understanding. It aims to fostering a peaceful and prosperous future amid current geopolitical tensions and to serve as an important public good in the field of the rule of law for better global governance.

The establishment of the IOMed is an actualization of the purposes and principles of the U.N. Charter, an example of a civilizational belief in harmony, an epitome of inclusiveness in the culture of the rule of law.
